Numb. 8389.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday December 15. to Tuesday December 18. 1744.

Moſcow, November 12.

M. D'Allion is arrived at Petersbourg. Count Roſenberg's Audience of the Empreſs is appointed for the Day after To-morrow. The Grand Duke is ſaid to be pretty well again, but has not as yet appeared in Publick.

Riga, Nov. 21. This Day arrived here in his Way to Petersbourg, the Right Honourable the Earl of Hyndford, his Britannick Majeſty's Miniſter to the Court of Ruſſia, and propoſes to purſue his Journey on the 23d Inſtant.

Stockholm, Nov. 23, O. S. His Swediſh Majeſty has voided a few ſmall Stones, and is much eaſier as to his Gravel; but another Diſorder has ſucceeded, which is a Looſeneſs accompanied with a little Fever. His Swediſh Majeſty reſted very ill laſt Night. Yeſterday Evening M. Laumary, the French Ambaſſador, gave a grand Entertainment and an Illumination, on Occaſion of the Princeſs Royal's Arrival here.

Stockholm, Nov. 27, O. S. By the laſt Poſt we had an Account of the Death of the Princeſs of Heſſe, which has very much grieved his Swediſh Majeſty, who is perfectly recovered of his late Indiſpoſition of a ſevere Fit of the Gravel, and appears again in Publick. Some Days ago died here Major General Count Dohna, by which the Regiment of Horſe Guards, of which he was Colonel, is become vacant.

Faro, Nov. 24. His Britannick Majeſty's Ships the Rupert and Guernſey were off of this Port the 21ſt Inſtant. They are come from the Mediterranean, appointed by Admiral Rowley to ſerve on the Gibraltar Station, and with the Frigats and Sloops that were on the ſame Station before, are to form a ſmall Squadron to cruize in theſe Seas; where the Rupert, Captain Ambroſe, who is the Commodore, has already taken ſeveral Prizes of Value, as alſo ſunk a French Privateer from Cadiz, of 14 Guns, and 80 Men, 55 of whom were ſaved, and the reſt drowned.

Vienna, Dec. 1, N. S. A Courier is juſt arrived from Prince Charles, with Advice that the Combined Army marched on the 26th paſt, in order of Battle, but that upon the Appearance of the Avant-Guard, the Pruſſians went off to Neuſtadt, from whence it was ſuppoſed that they would ſeparate into two Bodies, the one to go into Sileſia by Braunau, the other into the County of Glatz. The Combined Army intended to follow on the 28th. A Courier is likewiſe arrived from General Bernclau, with Advice, that he had diſlodged the Bavarians from the Heights on this Side of the Saltza, having killed about 200 of their Men, and thrown ſome Bombs into the Town of Burkhauſen, to puniſh the Burghers for their late Treachery.

Vienna, Dec. 5, N. S. General Bretlach, who left Prince Charles upon the 5th Inſtant, is arrived here, and brings Advice, That the Pruſſians, ſeparated into five Bodies, were retired out of Bohemia by Tratenau and Brandau into Sileſia, towards their great Magazine at Schweidnitz; that 4000 had been ſent, with the greateſt Expedition, to guard the Bridge of Glogaw for Fear of the Inſurgents; that the Retreat was a real Rout; that their Rear Guard ſuffered a great deal from the Huſſars; that 15 Field Pieces have been taken, and all Sorts of Baggage; that there had been 9000 Deſerters ſince the Paſſage of the Elbe; that the Queen had 8200 Priſoners in all upon her Hands; that amongſt the Deſerters 5000 at leaſt, Subjects of Sileſia, Moravia and Bohemia, have offered themſelves voluntarily for Recruits; that, in a Word, all the Priſoners and Deſerters agree, that the King of Pruſſia muſt find a Diminution in his Army of 40,000 Men, excluſively of thoſe who went out of Prague, and of whom a good Account is expected daily from the Chevalier de Saxe, who was detached upon the 28th of November, from the Combined Army, with 1000 Uhlans, 1000 Dragoons, 1000 Grenadiers, and 2000 Foot, to intercept them; that by the ſaid Flight of the five ſeparate Bodies above-mentioned, the County of Glatz was left deſtitute of Men, excepting three Battallions that were in the Caſtle of the Town of that Name, ſo that ſome of the Auſtrians had already entered into that County, whilſt the Adjutant Buckow was actually arrived at Joannesberg with 1500 Men on the other Side of Glatz, and is to be followed by three Corps ſucceſſively, and as faſt as can be done conveniently through ſuch Defilés, the laſt of which Corps is to be commanded by the Prince himſelf. This Liberty of entring upon the Pruſſian Eſtates has made the Troops leſs deſirous of Winter Quarters in Bohemia, and the Duke of Weiſſenfels has taken upon himſelf to form a Cantonnement from Jaromitz, directly up to Luſatia, and Prince Charles's is to extend from Konigſgratz, through the Mountains in and round Glatz into Sileſia, and be there joined by the Inſurgents. The Caſtle of Glatz is thought by the Inhabitants to be upon the Point of being abandoned by the three Battalions that are in Garriſon there. This Opinion ariſes not only from certain Motions obſerv'd in the Caſtle, but from the Incident of their Magazine of Meal being entirely corrupted, of which the Burghers have brought Samples

Samples to Prince Charles, which are quite black. One Thouſand four hundred Deſerters more are come into Prague, ſo that the Body which went out of that Town on the 26th paſt is diminiſhed by 3000 Men. General Keil advances on this Side of the Oder towards Troppaw and Jagendorff, whilſt the Hungarian Inſurgents operate on the other Side of that River. Four Regiments of Horſe and ſeven of Foot, under Lieutenant General Thungen, are marched to Bavaria and the Upper Palatinate. Amongſt thoſe who have deſerted from the Pruſſian Army, are ſeveral Brandenburghers, who have been 20 Years Soldiers in the Pruſſian Service. It is reported here, that Marſhal Schwerin is diſmiſſed from the King of Pruſſia's Service, and that Prince Leopold of Anhalt has retired under Pretence of being greatly afflicted with the Gout. The Dalmatians, in purſuing the Garriſon of Prague, have recovered the fine Copper Pontoons which the Pruſſians had taken along with them, and taken two Pieces of Cannon, with ſeveral Waggons of Baggage; and 21 Pieces of Cannon have been found out, which were hidden in that Town. From Bavaria we have no News; the Enemy ſeem to be retired into Winter Quarters in the flat Country on the other Side of the Inn, and the Auſtrians in Bavaria on this Side of that River and the Saltza. The Campaign ended with General Bernclau's cutting four Companies of the Enemy's Grenadiers in Pieces near Burckhauſen, and burning that Town with Bombs and red-hot Bullets for the Perfidy of the Burghers in betraying the Auſtrian Garriſon. The Empreſs Dowager who has been for a long while in a very bad State of Health, was this Morning ſo ill that ſhe received all the Sacraments. The Queen is in ſuch Affliction as ſuſpends all Buſineſs for the preſent.

Copenhagen, Dec. 5, N. S. The King and Queen of Denmark, together with the two Daniſh Princeſſes, returned hither from the Country on the 2d Inſtant, and are now ſettled for the Winter in the Palace of Chriſtiansburg. The Prince and Princeſs Royal arrived likewiſe at Charlottenburg Yeſterday in the Afternoon, all in perfect Health. Letters from Stockholm bring Advice, that the Pruſſian Miniſter there, who acts as Plenipotentiary for the Francfort Allies, had at laſt met with a Refuſal upon his Inſtances to obtain the Acceſſion of that Crown to the Treaty of Union, a Majority of the Senate having declared againſt it.

Copenhagen, Dec. 8. The Princeſs Royal is generally believed to be two Months gone with Child, which gives great Joy here.

Copenhagen, December 12. On the 10th inſtant four new Ships were launched here, two of 70 Guns by the Architects of the Royal Fleet, one by the Eaſt-India Company, and another by a private Builder. One of the 70 Gun Ships, and that belonging to the Eaſt-India Company, were named after the Princeſs Royal. The King, together with the Prince, aſſiſted at the Ceremony, but the Weather being very cold, the Queen and Princeſs did not appear. His Britannick Majeſty's Ship the Dover being now repaired and rigged again, will be getting out of this Port To-morrow or next Day, in order to fall down to Elſenore with the firſt fair Wind.

Berlin, Dec. 15, N. S. The King of Pruſſia arrived here Yeſterday at Four o'Clock in the Afternoon, accompanied by the Prince of Pruſſia, Prince Ferdinand of Brunſwick, and the Margrave Charles. His Majeſty will go to Potzdam To-morrow or the Day after. The reigning Prince of Deſſau ſet out from hence upon the 7th, to take upon himſelf the Command of the Pruſſian Army in Sileſia. The Prince Royal, Henry, arrived here upon the 8th at Night. His Highneſs had been very dangerouſly ill of a Fever and Bloody Flux, but is at preſent pretty well recovered.

Hamburgh, Dec. 15. It is reckoned here, that by Sickneſs, Deſertion, and thoſe killed in the different Skirmiſhes, that the King of Pruſſia has loſt one half of his Army with which he laſt invaded Bohemia. His Pruſſian Majeſty was expected as To-day, at Berlin, from whence the Prince Anhalt Deſſau ſet out laſt Week, to take upon him the Command of the Pruſſian Army in Sileſia. The Marſhal Belleiſle is likewiſe expected at Berlin. We hear that the Empreſs of Ruſſia has lately declared to the Pruſſian Miniſter at her Court, and in moſt ſtrong Terms, that the Intrigues of M. Wallenrodt at Grodno, had been highly diſpleaſing to her, and that her Imperial Majeſty had at the ſame time repeated to M. Mardefeldt, the ſame Aſſurances which Count Beſtuchef was ordered to give at Grodno, of her being reſolved to ſupport, and to adhere to her Engagements with the King, and the Republick of Poland.

Hamburgh, Dec. 18. The King of Pruſſia is ſaid to have arrived on the 14th in the Afternoon at Berlin.

Hague, Nov. 15, N. S. Our freſheſt News from Bohemia is of the 2d Inſtant. The Pruſſians continued retiring towards Glatz with great Precipitation, and Loſs by Deſertion, Sickneſs, Fatigue and Skirmiſhes. Prince Charles's Avant Guard had poſſeſſed itſelf of the Towns of Neuſtat and Nachod, and the Chevalier de Saxe was leading a Detachment of light armed Troops in Purſuit of the Garriſon of Prague. It is confidently written hither by credible Perſons, that the Works of Menin were begun to be blown up by the French the Beginning of laſt Week. Count Maurice of Naſſau ſets out To-morrow for England, being recovered in his Health beyond Expectation.

Hague, Dec. 18, N. S. The laſt Letters from Bohemia mention the King of Pruſſia's having entirely evacuated Bohemia, and Prince Charles's beginning to canton his Troops in good Part upon the Territory of the County of Glatz. Letters from Dreſden of the 12th Inſtant, bring Advice of the Garriſon of Prague's being arrived at Gabel on the Frontier of Luſatia, where it is ſaid to have been joined by another ſmall Corps of the ſame Nation; that they had demanded the Paſſage of the Court of Dreſden, and that the ſame had been granted them, on Condition of their laying down their Arms, which were at the ſame Time promiſed to be faithfully ſent after them; that the Pruſſians had refuſed theſe Conditions; that two more Saxon Regiments had been ſent into Luſace to reinforce the Corps actually a-head of them there, and that the Chevalier de Saxe, with his Detachment from the Combined Army, was arrived within four

Leagues

Leagues behind them, ſo that we are very impatient here to learn the Iſſue of this Affair. The Archdutcheſs, Governante of the Low Countries, died on the 16th Inſtant, much regretted.

Whitehall, December 18.
